

Academic OneFile

Gale Company | Farmington Hills, Michigan

Students, academics and professionals use Academic OneFile for their research and information needs. Academic OneFile is a reliable resource for information on biology, history, chemistry, marketing, political science, economics, psychology, environmental science and criminal justice.

Via a search engine, readers can search and read full-text articles from more than 17,000 scholarly journals, magazines, newspapers and reports. The database even includes speeches.

JSTOR

Ithaca Harbors (non-profit) | New York, New York

JSTOR is one of the most well-known and respected online libraries of academic periodicals and books found in North America. It is heavily used by researchers and is found in most university libraries in the United States.

Via the search engine, readers can search and read academic journals and books in the following areas: business and economics, history, law, medicine, science, the humanities and social sciences.

ProQuest Dissertations & Theses Global

ProQuest Co. | Ann Arbor, Michigan

ProQuest is a robust online academic library containing more than one million dissertations and theses from universities in the United States and around the world.

Dissertation topics include business, economics, medicine, science, technology, agriculture, social science, arts and the humanities. University students, researchers, subject experts and academics are the primary audiences for ProQuest.

Press Reader

PressReader | Vancouver, Canada

PressReader is a true “digital newsstand.” This extremely popular database contains 400 of the most read newspapers and magazines from around the world.

A bonus is Press Reader’s easy, traditional format, which allows users to read the digital copy as if they were reading the print version.

Flipster

EBSCO | Ipswich, Massachusetts

With the Flipster database, readers can browse or read the full text of 17 of the most popular magazines from the United States.

These titles include National Geographic, Popular Science, Entrepreneur, Wired, Forbes, Reader’s Digest, The New Yorker and American Craft.

Kanopy

Kanopy | San Francisco, California

Ask the staff at your site about Kanopy films!

- Documentary Videos on American Society and Culture
- From science to business, from history to art, there is a video for everyone in the Kanopy collection.

Research in Context

Gale Cengage Co. | Farmington Hills, Michigan

Research in Context collects primary resources and reporting about some of the most researched subjects at schools. It is a learning and research tool for youth, students, teachers and the general public.

Popular topics include world culture, geography, the U.S. government, literature, noteworthy people and science.

Digital Literacy

Rosen Publishing | New York, New York

The Digital Literacy library is a how-to resource for anyone who needs to quickly build digital media skills. Through online lessons, users can learn how to create podcasts, public service announcements, multimedia presentations, digital business plans and social media campaigns.

Teachers, librarians, students, youth or anyone interested in developing digital skills will find this resource valuable.

Opposing Viewpoints in Context

Gale Cengage Co. | Farmington Hills, Michigan

Opposing Viewpoints in Context is an easy-to-use information resource for students, teachers, professors, subject experts lawyers, lawmakers or anyone who needs to quickly learn the different perspectives for a major topic.

Summaries of opposing viewpoints are provided for key topics such as business and economics; energy and environment; health and medicine; law and politics; science and technology; U.S. society and culture; war; and diplomacy. Each summary is written by an expert.